PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Mary Callahan Boone

Welcome March and welcome spring!

You'll recall Philanthropy Chair Carole Matthews asked for requests at our December membership meeting. I am pleased to report that the LBGAA executive board received and approved two requests: one from the Wood County Museum & Historical Society to support its annual Living History Day and one from Bowling Green High School for its After-Prom event.

Mark your calendars for our quarterly membership meeting Wednesday, March 20 at Grumpy Dave's (Easy Street's upstairs). I'm excited to share that our guest speaker will be Heather Saylor, Planning Director for the City of Bowling Green. Heather will talk about the city's Master Plan. Cost for lunch will be $12 for members and $14 for guests. RSVPs, sent to Kathy East at kaea12@att.net, are needed by Thursday, March 14.

Finally, thank you, paid LBGAA paid members! It's hard to believe, but the 2012/2013 membership year will soon be drawing to a close. Watch for a membership renewal reminder to be coming your way in June. Memberships and luncheons are our primary means of fundraising--allowing us to sponsor projects like Living History Day, the Bowling Green High School After Prom, annual scholarships to BGHS seniors, and other service projects within our community.

Looking forward to seeing you all March 20 at Grumpy Dave's!

Mary Callahan Boone

Did you know that when you RSVP your intention to come to a quarterly meeting and are a "no-show," LBGAA loses funds that would otherwise go towards supporting our philanthropy projects? One no-show may not seem much, but the loss quickly adds up. Recently it seems to have been the case that there have been multiple no-shows for our luncheon meetings. Because of this, for the December meeting and in the future, we'll be asking members who don't show after RSVPing a yes to reimburse LBGAA for the cost of their meal. Please note that if you do not RSVP you are always free to come to the meeting but there may not be a meal available for you.

MISSION

The Leadership BG Alumni Association exists to:

- Support, facilitate, and sustain Leadership BG
- Provide a forum for continued education, networking, and coalition building
- Respond to community needs
- Provide a pool of informed leaders for service to the community
