PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Mary Callahan Boone

I hope you'll plan to join us for the LBGAA quarterly meeting December 5 at the Wood County District Public Library. This is our annual holiday luncheon—we'll share a great meal, the company of good companions, and a little holiday entertainment.

This year a special holiday, home-cooked meal is being catered for us by Super Suppers. Lunch costs are $15 for members and $17 for guests. The entertainment will be provided by jazz guitarist Chris Buzzelli of the BSGU School of Music.

All that's needed to complete our holiday gathering is many alums to be there, and that's where you come in. One of our goals for this LBGAA year is to build our membership. Mark your calendars for the holiday lunch and invite another alum to join you—perhaps someone from your Leadership class who might not ordinarily come to a LBGAA meeting.

RSVPs, sent to Kathy East at kaea12@att.net are needed by November 28. We hope to get many RSVPs in the affirmative. Our luncheons are LBGAA's number one means of fundraising. Funds are used to fund scholarships, sponsor after proms, support for the Leadership Bowling Green High School class, and other service projects within the community.

See you December 5th at the library!

Mary Callahan Boone

Did you know that when you RSVP your intention to come to a quarterly meeting and are a "no-show," LBGAA loses funds that would otherwise go towards supporting our philanthropy projects? One no-show may not seem much, but the loss quickly adds up. Recently it seems to have been the case that there have been multiple no-shows for our luncheon meetings. Because of this, for the December meeting and in the future, we'll be asking members who don't show after RSVPing a yes to reimburse LBGAA for the cost of their meal.

Please note that if you do not RSVP you are always free to come to the meeting but there may not be a meal available for you.
