

The BG Chamber of Commerce Business Council presents:

Generations at Work: Slaying Stereotypes & Finding the Common Ground

May 31st, 2017
11:30 am - 1:00 pm

Hosted at: The Four Corners Center
130 S. Main St.

- Explain why having a balance of results & relationships matters at work, and how we view generations plays into that balance.
- Describe how to fully engage generations.
- Describe the 4 generations in the workplace & the importance of “exploding stereotypes”
- Explain the specific management opportunities all generations present.

the ea!
The Employers' Association

Presenter: Dave Tippett, PHR, The Employers' Association

Cost: With Lunch -$10 for Chamber Investors, $20 for Non-Investors.
Without Lunch -Free for Investors, $10 for Non-Investors.

RSVP for a catered lunch by May 26th
RSVP for seat only by May 30th
Space is limited, so call the Chamber at 419-353-7945
or email MarissaMuniz@bgchamber.net to RSVP today!